

GAIL BORDEN LIBRARY
270 N.GROVE AVE.
ELGIN, IL 60120

NOVEMBER 6, 2021
1:30 - 3:30 P.M.

Every Vote Counts!

Can Voting and Integrity Still Be Used in the Same Sentence?

Join Kane County Democratic Women in the Meadows Community Room at the Gail Borden Library for a discussion on election integrity. William Muck, Professor of Political Science at North Central College in Naperville, Illinois, and Brian Pollock, representing Jack Cunningham, Kane County Clerk, are the featured speakers.

Registration for this free event is preferred, but not required.
<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/every-vote-counts-can-voting-integrity-still-be-used-in-same-sentence-tickets-190543760517>

William “Bill” Muck is Chair of the Political Science Department and coordinator for the Global Studies and Model United Nations programs at North Central College. He and a friend host a weekly podcast known as “The Politics Lab.”

Jack Cunningham served as Commissioner of Public Properties in Aurora from 1965 to 1973 at a time when there were major developments and building projects in Aurora. Later he worked in the private sector as an attorney, realtor, and real estate developer. In 2002, he was elected Kane County Clerk.

Jack Cunningham

William Muck

Kane County Democratic Women
P.O. Box 1193, St. Charles, IL 60174
kcdw@kcdwomen.com/www.kcdwomen.com

